

NOTICE

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION FEDERAL AVIATION ADMINISTRATION

N 8900.308

National Policy

Effective Date:
7/7/15

Cancellation Date:
7/7/16

SUBJ: New Location for DAR-T and ODA MRA Initial and Recurrent Training Requirements

1. Purpose of This Notice. This notice provides guidance to Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Designated Airworthiness Representatives – Maintenance (DAR-T) and certain authorized Organization Designation Authorization (ODA) Major Repair, Major Alteration, and Airworthiness (MRA) unit members on the interim training requirements currently contained in the current editions of FAA Order 8100.8, Designee Management Handbook, and FAA Order 8100.17, Field Approval Delegation Handbook. Initial and recurrent training requirements can be determined by referencing the tables by your authorized functions.

Note: This guidance is considered to be supplemental to FAA orders and Federal regulations.

2. Audience. The primary audience for this notice is Flight Standards-appointed DAR-Ts and MRA unit members conducting maintenance functions, as well as the FAA Airworthiness aviation safety inspectors (ASI) who manage these designees. The secondary audience includes Flight Standards branches and divisions in the regions and in headquarters (HQ).

3. Where You Can Find This Notice. You can find this notice on the MyFAA employee Web site at https://employees.faa.gov/tools_resources/orders_notices. Inspectors can access this notice through the Flight Standards Information Management System (FSIMS) at <http://fsims.avs.faa.gov>. Operators can find this notice on the FAA's Web site at <http://fsims.faa.gov>. This notice is available to the public at http://www.faa.gov/regulations_policies/orders_notices.

4. Policy Change. Initial and recurrent training requirements for DAR-Ts, MRA ODA unit members conducting airworthiness and maintenance functions, and applicants for these appointments are currently found in Order 8100.8, and Order 8100.17. Both orders are being phased out with the implementation of the new Designee Management System (DMS). In preparation for the transition to DMS, currently scheduled for early calendar-year 2016, the training requirements will now be located at the following Web site:
http://www.faa.gov/other_visit/aviation_industry/designees_delegations/training.

5. Required Training. The site provides a table listing the required training required for each authorized function held, or for which application is made. For recurrent training, the site also lists the maximum recurrent training interval.

6. Disposition. We will incorporate the information in this notice into FAA Order 8000.95, in a change which will coincide with the implementation of the DMS for maintenance designees and ODA unit members. Direct questions concerning the information in this notice to Designee Standardization Branch (AFS-640) at 405-954-6495.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "J. Barbagallo". The signature is stylized with a large, sweeping "J" and a cursive "Barbagallo".

John Barbagallo
Deputy Director, Flight Standards Service